One of Bengaluru's ultra luxury residential destinations, Phoenix Kessaku, located in Rajajinagar, curated a day of celebration and experience to felicitate multi-Grammy award-winning music composer and environmentalist Ricky Kej. This was done over a sumptuous brunch recently at Kaze – touted as the city's only sky club, at Kessaku.

The venue, as an active advocate of sustainable lifestyle, was honoured to felicitate Ricky, known for his international collaborations in music, towards promoting and advocating environment and sustainability across global platforms. The brunch was an intimate gathering to interact with him, about his journey.

The musical afternoon was complimented by a soulful country music performance by Sheridan Brass, who enthralled guests with his soulful performance. The event also showcased one of the city's finest collection of vintage cars. It event was attended by business leaders, industrialists and socialites from Bengaluru.

From incredible skyline views to lavish pools, mini-golf, snooker and other entertainment activities at the venue, the brunch transformed to be a memorable experience for its guests.

Kessaku is designed as a bungalow in the sky, and every aspect of the bespoke residences has been meticulously planned - from the comfort of the homes to the multi-level security, connectivity to convenience, landscapes to amenities, art to architecture, and more. The living spaces are detailed to flow seamlessly into each other, while also creating expansive individualised spaces to retire. They have worked with the best in the business to bring their grand vision to life.
